

STANDARDS AND PROCEDURES FOR THE APPLICATION OF HAZARDOUS AND EXTRA-HAZARDOUS DUTY BENEFITS.

I. Hazardous Duty

(a) Overseas - PCS

Retroactive Terminated & employees

Eligibility for Hazardous Duty benefits for overseas service shall commence with the date of arrival at the PCS post of duty, and shall terminate upon the date of departure on PCS return to the U. S. At such time as additional credit for retirement may be authorized, appropriate forms and procedures will be devised to initiate, compute, record and terminate retirement on the accelerated basis for the appropriate periods.

(b) Hazardous Duty - Overseas - TTY

Headquarters staff employees shall be eligible for Hazardous Duty Benefits effective the day of departure from the U.S. on TTY travel, terminating upon the date of return to the U.S. At such time as additional credit for retirement may be authorized an appropriate form will be devised which will be prepared at the time the travel voucher is processed for the purpose of computing and transferring the additional credit to the individuals permanent retirement records.

(c) Hazardous Duty in the U.S.

At the present time no general circumstances or types of duty in the U.S. appear to warrant the general benefits of Hazardous Duty overseas. In the event certain duties in the U.S. are ultimately deemed to be unusually hazardous, but not to a degree warranting Extra-Hazardous Duty compensation, such cases would be declared eligible for appropriate portions of the Hazardous Duty Benefit Plan, by The Hazardous Duty Board

II. Extra-Hazardous Duty

(3) Continuous participation in demolition handling and detonation, <sup>as trainee or instructor</sup> including ~~instructors~~ <sup>Trainees</sup>.

III (4) Operating officials must submit to the Hazardous Duty Board the facts and circumstances concerning each employee or group of analogous employees who may be deemed eligible for <sup>hazardous or</sup> extra-hazardous duty. The Board shall determine eligibility, the period of eligibility, and the conditions for continuation of eligibility.
